

In Good Demand.
The furniture factory is having a big demand for their product. Up to last Monday night orders had been received since January 1st, for goods to the amount of $2,000—most of which was for spot cash when delivered. Shipping clerks are busy putting the goods on the cars.

On to Atlanta.
Mr. O. W. Welling and his brother, Mr. Allan Welling, left for Atlanta Tuesday morning where Mr. Welling will prepare a report on his work in the gold fields of Abbeville. Mr. Welling has been in the gold fields for some time and is well known to the people of Abbeville and the people of Atlanta. He made a number of warm friends here.

Pleased With Abbeville.
After a pleasant stay of several weeks with his relatives Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Link, Mr. Joseph Taylor has returned to his home in North Carolina. Mr. Taylor expressed himself as delighted with Abbeville and the people. He made a number of warm friends here.

At the Opera House.
Stimwell's adequate presentation of Shakespeare's immortal play of love and passion, Romeo and Juliet, will be given at the Opera House Thursday, Jan. 14. Seats on sale at Milford's. Prices 50c, 75c and $1.00. Children under 7, 25c.

Death of Capt. Kirk.
Capt. W. T. Kirk, the well known civil engineer, died last Monday at his home in Charleston. He leaves a widow and one child.

Book Club.
There will be a meeting of the Book Club on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. F. B. Gary.

Re-appointed.
Miss Nettie L. Brownson has been re-appointed by the Attorney General to a position in the Engineering Department of the Legislature and will leave next week for Columbia.

To Attend the Cotillion.
Mr. Wm. M. Barnwell and Mr. R. S. Link leave today for Greenville where they go to attend a house party and the Cotillion.

Buggy and Mule Stolen.
On December 19, a small red haired mule about fourteen years old. Saddle, harness, together with a bug with side bars. A liberal reward will be given for information. Malcom Brooks, Greenwood, S. C.

Notice to Trespassers.
All persons and all stock are ordered to keep off my land. No hunting or trespassing allowed. Those who disregard this notice will be prosecuted. Ed. Turner, Dec. 9, 1903.

Married.
On the 6th instant, in the manse, by Rev. J. Lowrie Wilson, D. D., Mr. Walter Spott and Miss Minnie Kirby.

Wanted.—Peru, Missouri, Hickory, and Holly logs. Freight paid on carload. James Cocke, Charleston, S. C.

WANTED.—A good milk cow. Apply to Mrs. W. A. Lee, Abbeville, S. C.

DR. CRIMM eye specialist will remain in his office at the Eureka hotel until Thursday the 14th instant, for consultation with patients. Col. Hoyt, of Greenville, and others give Dr. Crimm, the highest endorsement.

President A. W. Smith, the best looking mill president in all this section, was in Abbeville last week looking after his farm.

MR. JAMES WADKINS and family of Troy left yesterday for Texas. He would have done better to have stayed in Abbeville. This office is badly in need of printers.

J. W. McKee's Locals.
Try McKee's Purify Coffee 15c 2 for 25c. Try our English Oatmeal. Try a gallon of McKee's Orange Syrup at McKee's, 60c per gallon. Fresh cheese at 20c per pound.

L. W. White's Locals.
Winter Dress Goods can now be bought at L. W. White at a considerable reduction in price.

L. W. White has a few Over Coats left. Any one desiring to buy a garment of this kind can get a bargain.

Bleached Long Cloths are now offered by L. W. White at very attractive prices.

The best feather on the market can still be bought at L. W. White at the same old price.

If you want Hams, Porks, Sausages, Beef, Tackles, Outings or anything else in the domestic goods, you can surely get them to advantage from L. W. White.

Go to White's Grocery Store and buy your corn, flour, meal, molasses or anything else needed in the grocery line.

COTTON MARKET.
Reported by W. D. Barkdale.
Number of bales received since last Tuesday.
Price ranging from 12 to 13 1/2 cents.
Market closing at 13 1/2 cents.
Cotton seed 30 cents per bushel.
Estimated loads of hay. Price ranging from 10 to 12 cents per hundred pounds.

GREAT SALE OF EMBROIDERIES.

We have on sale over two thousand yards of Embroidery going at the special prices of 5c, 10c and 16 2-3c. These goods have just arrived, the newest patterns out, and every lady who has seen them pronounces them the greatest bargains ever seen in Abbeville. A. M. Smith & Co.

THE GLENN-ETHEL.

Good Living—Good House—Good Cheer—Good Time Generally.

Mr. J. S. Cochran is now at the head of this hotel, and he has been generally from the top of the pot, every day in the week, and on Sundays he does a little better.

The house has been painted throughout, and it looks as neat as a pin, and as inviting as your own home. In fact, Mr. Cochran would be glad for you to consider yourself at home with him, where good food and a hearty welcome awaits you. Mr. Cochran, like sagacious women, knows that the nearest way to a man's heart is down his throat.

Pointed Paragraphs.
Fashion's leaders always follow it. A female optimist is a woman who smiles when she meets a masculine bore.

A Husband Incubator.—There is a very ingenious woman living near McKee, who says that her liege lord and master does not and has not furnished the water to mix the bread in 15 years. He is always lying around doing nothing. Two weeks ago he went to bed with a very slow fever, and his wife got an idea that she could make an incubator of him. She put 100 eggs around him, but he is getting cross and uneasy, and she is afraid he will quit the nest, as he has never stuck to any job three weeks.

Look at those goods for making waists at L. W. White's. Milford's White Pine and Tar Cough Syrup, the best on earth.

New lot Fur and Silk Collarets just in at Haddon's.

New lot Ladies Jacket just received at Haddon's.

Our prescription business is booming. Send them to us if you want the best service and lowest prices. Milford's. Phone 107.

Dr. Marshall, one of Abbeville's oldest citizens, died last Wednesday morning at his home on Magazine Hill. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the afflicted family.

L. W. White's Locals.
The latest and most desirable styles of ladies dress goods can be found in great abundance and variety at the store of L. W. White.

Those black and colored zibelines at White's are great sellers. They make very stylish dresses.

L. W. White has the best assortment of black and colored, all wool dress goods at 20 cents a yard he has ever shown. Call and see them.

That material for making rainy-day skirts at White's, 54 inches wide for 50 cents a yard is a great bargain.

Ladies wraps and cloaks have begun to arrive at L. W. White's. By the first of next week he will have a good assortment of them.

L. W. White has some of the greatest bargains in embroidery he has ever had. That means a great deal.

He has the fine white mercerized goods, that are so much used this season, and also pieces of all colors, and silk striped worsted goods.

White's stock of clothing is unusually large and attractive this season. He has the best stock of youth's boys, and children's clothing he has ever carried.

White's store is undoubtedly the place to buy clothes. You can see there one thousand or more different styles.

Rugs, carpets and hangings, also blankets and comforters can be seen in great abundance at White's store.

J. W. McKee's Local.
20 lb. granulated sugar for $1.00.
A good rice 25 lb. for $1.00.
Hams, Kitchens best at 14c.
Syrups from 20c per gallon up.
A good 50c syrup for 40c.
10 lb. sugar for 50c.
Keg soda, 10 lb. for 25c.

Notice.
I will be at Abbeville on first Monday of each month and two weeks following for the purpose of treating Hemorrhoids (Piles). Treatment consists in purely aseptic methods, is painless and without the use of chloroform and the knife. Cure guaranteed. All parties interested will find me at the Glenn Ethel Inn Hotel, Abbeville, S. C., or Dr. R. A. Maitis, 100 McCormick, S. C. Office hours from 10 A. M. till 3 P. M. on above mentioned days. Jno. B. Britt, M. D.

Look at those goods for making waists at L. W. White's. Milford's White Pine and Tar Cough Syrup, the best on earth.

New lot Fur and Silk Collarets just in at Haddon's.

New lot Ladies Jacket just received at Haddon's.

Our prescription business is booming. Send them to us if you want the best service and lowest prices. Milford's. Phone 107.

Dr. Marshall, one of Abbeville's oldest citizens, died last Wednesday morning at his home on Magazine Hill. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the afflicted family.

L. W. White's Locals.
The latest and most desirable styles of ladies dress goods can be found in great abundance and variety at the store of L. W. White.

Those black and colored zibelines at White's are great sellers. They make very stylish dresses.

L. W. White has the best assortment of black and colored, all wool dress goods at 20 cents a yard he has ever shown. Call and see them.

That material for making rainy-day skirts at White's, 54 inches wide for 50 cents a yard is a great bargain.

Ladies wraps and cloaks have begun to arrive at L. W. White's. By the first of next week he will have a good assortment of them.

L. W. White has some of the greatest bargains in embroidery he has ever had. That means a great deal.

He has the fine white mercerized goods, that are so much used this season, and also pieces of all colors, and silk striped worsted goods.

White's stock of clothing is unusually large and attractive this season. He has the best stock of youth's boys, and children's clothing he has ever carried.

White's store is undoubtedly the place to buy clothes. You can see there one thousand or more different styles.

Rugs, carpets and hangings, also blankets and comforters can be seen in great abundance at White's store.

J. W. McKee's Local.
20 lb. granulated sugar for $1.00.
A good rice 25 lb. for $1.00.
Hams, Kitchens best at 14c.
Syrups from 20c per gallon up.
A good 50c syrup for 40c.
10 lb. sugar for 50c.
Keg soda, 10 lb. for 25c.

Notice.
I will be at Abbeville on first Monday of each month and two weeks following for the purpose of treating Hemorrhoids (Piles). Treatment consists in purely aseptic methods, is painless and without the use of chloroform and the knife. Cure guaranteed. All parties interested will find me at the Glenn Ethel Inn Hotel, Abbeville, S. C., or Dr. R. A. Maitis, 100 McCormick, S. C. Office hours from 10 A. M. till 3 P. M. on above mentioned days. Jno. B. Britt, M. D.

Look at those goods for making waists at L. W. White's. Milford's White Pine and Tar Cough Syrup, the best on earth.

New lot Fur and Silk Collarets just in at Haddon's.

New lot Ladies Jacket just received at Haddon's.

Our prescription business is booming. Send them to us if you want the best service and lowest prices. Milford's. Phone 107.

Dr. Marshall, one of Abbeville's oldest citizens, died last Wednesday morning at his home on Magazine Hill. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the afflicted family.

L. W. White's Locals.
The latest and most desirable styles of ladies dress goods can be found in great abundance and variety at the store of L. W. White.

Those black and colored zibelines at White's are great sellers. They make very stylish dresses.

L. W. White has the best assortment of black and colored, all wool dress goods at 20 cents a yard he has ever shown. Call and see them.

That material for making rainy-day skirts at White's, 54 inches wide for 50 cents a yard is a great bargain.

Ladies wraps and cloaks have begun to arrive at L. W. White's. By the first of next week he will have a good assortment of them.

L. W. White has some of the greatest bargains in embroidery he has ever had. That means a great deal.

He has the fine white mercerized goods, that are so much used this season, and also pieces of all colors, and silk striped worsted goods.

White's stock of clothing is unusually large and attractive this season. He has the best stock of youth's boys, and children's clothing he has ever carried.

White's store is undoubtedly the place to buy clothes. You can see there one thousand or more different styles.

Rugs, carpets and hangings, also blankets and comforters can be seen in great abundance at White's store.

J. W. McKee's Local.
20 lb. granulated sugar for $1.00.
A good rice 25 lb. for $1.00.
Hams, Kitchens best at 14c.
Syrups from 20c per gallon up.
A good 50c syrup for 40c.
10 lb. sugar for 50c.
Keg soda, 10 lb. for 25c.

Notice.
I will be at Abbeville on first Monday of each month and two weeks following for the purpose of treating Hemorrhoids (Piles). Treatment consists in purely aseptic methods, is painless and without the use of chloroform and the knife. Cure guaranteed. All parties interested will find me at the Glenn Ethel Inn Hotel, Abbeville, S. C., or Dr. R. A. Maitis, 100 McCormick, S. C. Office hours from 10 A. M. till 3 P. M. on above mentioned days. Jno. B. Britt, M. D.

Look at those goods for making waists at L. W. White's. Milford's White Pine and Tar Cough Syrup, the best on earth.

New lot Fur and Silk Collarets just in at Haddon's.

New lot Ladies Jacket just received at Haddon's.

Our prescription business is booming. Send them to us if you want the best service and lowest prices. Milford's. Phone 107.

Dr. Marshall, one of Abbeville's oldest citizens, died last Wednesday morning at his home on Magazine Hill. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the afflicted family.

L. W. White's Locals.
The latest and most desirable styles of ladies dress goods can be found in great abundance and variety at the store of L. W. White.

Those black and colored zibelines at White's are great sellers. They make very stylish dresses.

L. W. White has the best assortment of black and colored, all wool dress goods at 20 cents a yard he has ever shown. Call and see them.

That material for making rainy-day skirts at White's, 54 inches wide for 50 cents a yard is a great bargain.

Ladies wraps and cloaks have begun to arrive at L. W. White's. By the first of next week he will have a good assortment of them.

L. W. White has some of the greatest bargains in embroidery he has ever had. That means a great deal.

He has the fine white mercerized goods, that are so much used this season, and also pieces of all colors, and silk striped worsted goods.

White's stock of clothing is unusually large and attractive this season. He has the best stock of youth's boys, and children's clothing he has ever carried.

White's store is undoubtedly the place to buy clothes. You can see there one thousand or more different styles.

Rugs, carpets and hangings, also blankets and comforters can be seen in great abundance at White's store.

J. W. McKee's Local.
20 lb. granulated sugar for $1.00.
A good rice 25 lb. for $1.00.
Hams, Kitchens best at 14c.
Syrups from 20c per gallon up.
A good 50c syrup for 40c.
10 lb. sugar for 50c.
Keg soda, 10 lb. for 25c.

Notice.
I will be at Abbeville on first Monday of each month and two weeks following for the purpose of treating Hemorrhoids (Piles). Treatment consists in purely aseptic methods, is painless and without the use of chloroform and the knife. Cure guaranteed. All parties interested will find me at the Glenn Ethel Inn Hotel, Abbeville, S. C., or Dr. R. A. Maitis, 100 McCormick, S. C. Office hours from 10 A. M. till 3 P. M. on above mentioned days. Jno. B. Britt, M. D.

Look at those goods for making waists at L. W. White's. Milford's White Pine and Tar Cough Syrup, the best on earth.

New lot Fur and Silk Collarets just in at Haddon's.

New lot Ladies Jacket just received at Haddon's.

Our prescription business is booming. Send them to us if you want the best service and lowest prices. Milford's. Phone 107.

Dr. Marshall, one of Abbeville's oldest citizens, died last Wednesday morning at his home on Magazine Hill. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the afflicted family.

L. W. White's Locals.
The latest and most desirable styles of ladies dress goods can be found in great abundance and variety at the store of L. W. White.

Those black and colored zibelines at White's are great sellers. They make very stylish dresses.

L. W. White has the best assortment of black and colored, all wool dress goods at 20 cents a yard he has ever shown. Call and see them.

That material for making rainy-day skirts at White's, 54 inches wide for 50 cents a yard is a great bargain.

Ladies wraps and cloaks have begun to arrive at L. W. White's. By the first of next week he will have a good assortment of them.

L. W. White has some of the greatest bargains in embroidery he has ever had. That means a great deal.

He has the fine white mercerized goods, that are so much used this season, and also pieces of all colors, and silk striped worsted goods.

White's stock of clothing is unusually large and attractive this season. He has the best stock of youth's boys, and children's clothing he has ever carried.

White's store is undoubtedly the place to buy clothes. You can see there one thousand or more different styles.

Rugs, carpets and hangings, also blankets and comforters can be seen in great abundance at White's store.

J. W. McKee's Local.
20 lb. granulated sugar for $1.00.
A good rice 25 lb. for $1.00.
Hams, Kitchens best at 14c.
Syrups from 20c per gallon up.
A good 50c syrup for 40c.
10 lb. sugar for 50c.
Keg soda, 10 lb. for 25c.

Notice.
I will be at Abbeville on first Monday of each month and two weeks following for the purpose of treating Hemorrhoids (Piles). Treatment consists in purely aseptic methods, is painless and without the use of chloroform and the knife. Cure guaranteed. All parties interested will find me at the Glenn Ethel Inn Hotel, Abbeville, S. C., or Dr. R. A. Maitis, 100 McCormick, S. C. Office hours from 10 A. M. till 3 P. M. on above mentioned days. Jno. B. Britt, M. D.

Look at those goods for making waists at L. W. White's. Milford's White Pine and Tar Cough Syrup, the best on earth.

New lot Fur and Silk Collarets just in at Haddon's.

New lot Ladies Jacket just received at Haddon's.

Our prescription business is booming. Send them to us if you want the best service and lowest prices. Milford's. Phone 107.

Dr. Marshall, one of Abbeville's oldest citizens, died last Wednesday morning at his home on Magazine Hill. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the afflicted family.

L. W. White's Locals.
The latest and most desirable styles of ladies dress goods can be found in great abundance and variety at the store of L. W. White.

Those black and colored zibelines at White's are great sellers. They make very stylish dresses.

L. W. White has the best assortment of black and colored, all wool dress goods at 20 cents a yard he has ever shown. Call and see them.

That material for making rainy-day skirts at White's, 54 inches wide for 50 cents a yard is a great bargain.

Ladies wraps and cloaks have begun to arrive at L. W. White's. By the first of next week he will have a good assortment of them.

L. W. White has some of the greatest bargains in embroidery he has ever had. That means a great deal.

He has the fine white mercerized goods, that are so much used this season, and also pieces of all colors, and silk striped worsted goods.

White's stock of clothing is unusually large and attractive this season. He has the best stock of youth's boys, and children's clothing he has ever carried.

White's store is undoubtedly the place to buy clothes. You can see there one thousand or more different styles.

Rugs, carpets and hangings, also blankets and comforters can be seen in great abundance at White's store.

J. W. McKee's Local.
20 lb. granulated sugar for $1.00.
A good rice 25 lb. for $1.00.
Hams, Kitchens best at 14c.
Syrups from 20c per gallon up.
A good 50c syrup for 40c.
10 lb. sugar for 50c.
Keg soda, 10 lb. for 25c.

Notice.
I will be at Abbeville on first Monday of each month and two weeks following for the purpose of treating Hemorrhoids (Piles). Treatment consists in purely aseptic methods, is painless and without the use of chloroform and the knife. Cure guaranteed. All parties interested will find me at the Glenn Ethel Inn Hotel, Abbeville, S. C., or Dr. R. A. Maitis, 100 McCormick, S. C. Office hours from 10 A. M. till 3 P. M. on above mentioned days. Jno. B. Britt, M. D.

Look at those goods for making waists at L. W. White's. Milford's White Pine and Tar Cough Syrup, the best on earth.

New lot Fur and Silk Collarets just in at Haddon's.

New lot Ladies Jacket just received at Haddon's.

Our prescription business is booming. Send them to us if you want the best service and lowest prices. Milford's. Phone 107.

Dr. Marshall, one of Abbeville's oldest citizens, died last Wednesday morning at his home on Magazine Hill. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the afflicted family.

L. W. White's Locals.
The latest and most desirable styles of ladies dress goods can be found in great abundance and variety at the store of L. W. White.

Those black and colored zibelines at White's are great sellers. They make very stylish dresses.

L. W. White has the best assortment of black and colored, all wool dress goods at 20 cents a yard he has ever shown. Call and see them.

That material for making rainy-day skirts at White's, 54 inches wide for 50 cents a yard is a great bargain.

Ladies wraps and cloaks have begun to arrive at L. W. White's. By the first of next week he will have a good assortment of them.

L. W. White has some of the greatest bargains in embroidery he has ever had. That means a great deal.

He has the fine white mercerized goods, that are so much used this season, and also pieces of all colors, and silk striped worsted goods.

White's stock of clothing is unusually large and attractive this season. He has the best stock of youth's boys, and children's clothing he has ever carried.

White's store is undoubtedly the place to buy clothes. You can see there one thousand or more different styles.

Rugs, carpets and hangings, also blankets and comforters can be seen in great abundance at White's store.

J. W. McKee's Local.
20 lb. granulated sugar for $1.00.
A good rice 25 lb. for $1.00.
Hams, Kitchens best at 14c.
Syrups from 20c per gallon up.
A good 50c syrup for 40c.
10 lb. sugar for 50c.
Keg soda, 10 lb. for 25c.

Notice.
I will be at Abbeville on first Monday of each month and two weeks following for the purpose of treating Hemorrhoids (Piles). Treatment consists in purely aseptic methods, is painless and without the use of chloroform and the knife. Cure guaranteed. All parties interested will find me at the Glenn Ethel Inn Hotel, Abbeville, S. C., or Dr. R. A. Maitis, 100 McCormick, S. C. Office hours from 10 A. M. till 3 P. M. on above mentioned days. Jno. B. Britt, M. D.

Look at those goods for making waists at L. W. White's. Milford's White Pine and Tar Cough Syrup, the best on earth.

New lot Fur and Silk Collarets just in at Haddon's.

New lot Ladies Jacket just received at Haddon's.

Our prescription business is booming. Send them to us if you want the best service and lowest prices. Milford's. Phone 107.

Dr. Marshall, one of Abbeville's oldest citizens, died last Wednesday morning at his home on Magazine Hill. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the afflicted family.

L. W. White's Locals.
The latest and most desirable styles of ladies dress goods can be found in great abundance and variety at the store of L. W. White.

Those black and colored zibelines at White's are great sellers. They make very stylish dresses.

L. W. White has the best assortment of black and colored, all wool dress goods at 20 cents a yard he has ever shown. Call and see them.

That material for making rainy-day skirts at White's, 54 inches wide for 50 cents a yard is a great bargain.

Ladies wraps and cloaks have begun to arrive at L. W. White's. By the first of next week he will have a good assortment of them.

L. W. White has some of the greatest bargains in embroidery he has ever had. That means a great deal.

He has the fine white mercerized goods, that are so much used this season, and also pieces of all colors, and silk striped worsted goods.